

CALL FOR APPLICATIONS FOR VISITING PROFESSORS ACADEMIC YEAR 2024/2025

Background

Within the frame of the project “Dipartimento d’eccellenza”, financed by the Italian Ministry of Universities and Research, the Department of Law of the University of Macerata issues this call to foster the incoming mobility of scholars from universities and research institutions abroad, in order to enhance the quality of and expand its didactic and research activities during the academic year 2024/2025.

The herein public call seeks to initiate a mobility process involving international high profile scholars with the purpose of implementing the activities included within the project “Dipartimento d’eccellenza” whose general topic is “Innovation and Vulnerability: legal issues and remedies”.

In the light of the above-mentioned project, the Department of Law of the University of Macerata would expect its Visiting Professors to contribute to the teaching and research activities of the Department, and to foster cooperation between the University of Macerata and the universities and research institutions of provenance.

Article 1

Subject

The University of Macerata hereby issues a public call for selecting up to four Visiting Professors for the academic year 2024/2025, who will be hosted at the Department of Law.

This call for applications is intended for scholars who, at the sending universities or research institutions, fill positions equivalent to those of Full Professor, Associate Professor, Assistant Professor existing in Italian universities.

The Visiting Professors are required to stay at the University of Macerata for a period of fifteen days (type A) or one week (type B): during the first semester the visiting period will be between 23rd September 2024 and 30th November 2024; during the second semester the visiting period will be between 10th February 2025 and 12th May 2025.

The University of Macerata will award a grant to scholars with proven experience in teaching and scientific research at universities or research institutions abroad.

During their stay at the Department of Law the Visiting Professors have to carry out standard teaching activities (like seminars, teaching units or course modules), also in the form of co-teaching activities in collaboration with the academic staff of the Department. They may be required to cooperate in research projects conducted by academic staff of the Department on the topic “Innovation and vulnerability”, as well. For more detail on the project “Dipartimento di eccellenza” please visit its website: <http://ladi.unimc.it/>.

Article 2

Eligibility

Eligible candidates are scholars who, within the deadline for application, fill positions equivalent to those of Full Professor, Associate Professor, Assistant Professor existing in Italian universities. They are required to collaborate for a period of 15 days or one week (respectively type A and type B), carrying out teaching activities during the academic year 2024/2025 on the topic “Innovation and vulnerability: legal issues and remedies”. For more detail on the project “Dipartimento di eccellenza” please visit its website: <http://ladi.unimc.it/>.

Visiting Professors who do not receive any financial support in similar projects shall be given priority in the selection process.

Article 3 Financial Arrangements

Visiting Professors will be paid the gross amount of:

- € 3.000,00 (type A) – 15 days;
- € 1.800,00 (type B) – one week.

Such amounts are inclusive of tax and social security contribution to be borne by the recipient who can use the amount to cover travel expenses, board and accommodation, and medical expenses, as well as any expenditure sustained for obtaining a visa or permit in case of non-EU citizens.

The contribution is subject to legal costs.

The Department of Law will provide Visiting Professors with a fully equipped room for study and research in the Department premises, free access to libraries and laboratories.

During their stay, Visiting Professors will be supported by a Department Representative who will make sure they get successfully involved in the local academic and city life.

The University of Macerata will pay Visiting Professors a flat-rate reimbursement in keeping with Paragraph 1 of this Article. Payments will be issued as follow: 50% of the grant will be paid at the beginning of the period after all administrative procedures have been carried out, while the remaining 50% will be paid at the end of the stay, upon submission of a final report. At the end of the period, Visiting Professors shall submit a final report in English to be approved by the Consiglio di Dipartimento (Department Council).

If due to unexpected circumstances, Visiting Professors cannot perform all activities of the programme according to which they have been successfully selected, the grant may be reduced proportionally.

Article 4 Activities

During their stay at the University of Macerata, Visiting Professors have to engage in the following activities:

- provide at least 15 hours (type A) or 8 hours (type B) of standard teaching in BA courses, MA/single-cycle courses, PhD courses;
- take part in the activities of research groups of the Department on the topic “Innovation and vulnerability”;
