

Introduction to Italian Law

SEMINAR FOR ERASMUS AND INTERNATIONAL LAW STUDENTS IN MACERATA

In order to allow Erasmus and International students currently at the University of Macerata having a first approach with some courses, the Department of Law organizes a series of five introductory seminars to Italian Law and library facilities in Macerata, with the following calendar:

Monday, October 10th

11 a.m. – 1 p.m. / room 5 Department of Law
Prof Dr Ermanno Calzolaio

General Introduction to Italian Legal System

Wednesday, October 12th

11 a.m. – 1 p.m. / room 3 Department of Law
Prof Dr Erik Longo

Introduction to Italian Constitutional Law
(diritto costituzionale)

Wednesday, October 12th

1 – 3 p.m. / room 3 Department of Law
Dr Alessio Bartolacelli

Introduction to Italian Business Law (diritto commerciale)
and European Company Law

Monday, October 17th

1 – 3 p.m. / room 5 Department of Law
Prof Dr Fabrizio Marongiu Buonaiuti

Introduction to International and European Union Law
(diritto internazionale e diritto dell'Unione europea)

Friday, October 21th

11 a.m. – 1 p.m. / room 5 Department of Law
Dr Elisabetta Onori
(UniMC University Library System)

Introduction to library facilities and databases at the University of Macerata

Erasmus and International students attending all the seminars shall be granted 2 credits ECTS.

No anticipated registration required.

For further information, please feel free to contact Dr Alessio Bartolacelli (alessio.bartolacelli@unimc.it)