Series of Seminars on

HUMAN RIGHTS IN THE DIGITAL AGE

Visiting Professor
Dr. DOVILE GAILIUTE-JANUSONE
Mykolas Romeris University – Vilnius, LT

PROGRAMME

7 April 2022 | 11h00-14h00 | Classroom 4
I LECTURE: HUMAN RIGHTS ONLINE AND OFFLINE
Brief introduction of the main instruments of international human rights protection. - Catalogue of human rights. - Obligations of the states. - Mechanisms of protection of human rights (European Council; European Union; United Nations). - Admissibility requirements of individual complaints to the international tribunals. - Digitalization and human rights. - Artificial Intelligence and human rights Covid-19 and human rights.

12 April 2022 | 16h00-19h00 | Classroom 9
II LECTURE: RIGHT TO PRIVATE LIFE IN THE DIGITAL AGE
Protection of privacy online. - General Data Protection Regulation. - Data protection. - Right to be forgotten. - Mass surveillance. - Monitoring at work. - Social networks and privacy. - Impact of artificial intelligence on the right to private life. - Data collection during Covid-19.

21 April 2022 | 11h00-14h00 | Classroom 4
III LECTURE: FREEDOM OF EXPRESSION IN THE DIGITAL WORLD
Freedom to impart and receive information online. - Content moderation online. - Hate speech. - Comments online. - Disinformation, propaganda online. - Copyright protection. - Right to Internet access. - Freedom of expression v. right to private life. - Impact of artificial intelligence on freedom of expression.

26 April 2022 | 11h00-14h00 | Classroom 4
IV LECTURE: PROTECTION OF SPECIFIC RIGHTS IN THE DIGITAL AGE
Freedom of assembly and association on the Internet. - Freedom of religion in the digital age. - Right to a fair trial online. - Right to education in the digital age. - Protection of children online. - Right to free election in the digital age. - Right to healthcare online.

05 May 2022 | 11h00-14h00 | Classroom 4
V LECTURE: PROTECTION OF SPECIFIC RIGHTS IN THE DIGITAL AGE
Cyber torture. - Discrimination online. - Cyber racism. - Cyber vulnerability. - Cybersecurity and human rights. - Cybercrimes and human rights. - Effective remedies for restriction or violation of rights online.

Academic contact person
• Prof. Andrea Caligiuri – andrea.caligiuri@unimc.it

Tutor Service
• Department of Law:
  Dr. Federica Passarini – f.passarini3@unimc.it
• Department of SPOCRI:
  Dr. Rachele Marconi – r.marconi4@unimc.it

Students of the following courses who attend the Series of Seminars in its entirety will have 3 CFU:
• Master's Degree in Law (LMG/01) • Bachelor of International, European and Comparative Studies (L-14)
• Master's Degree in Legal Science for Innovation (LM/SC-GIUR) • Bachelor of Science in Legal Services (L-14)
• Master's Degree in International relations (LM-52).

In order to receive 3 CFU, the Law Department's students must ensure attendance at all meetings. Tutor will ensure that the signatures of the attending students are collected.

In order to receive 3 CFU, SPOCRI students must submit a written report on the topic of the seminars to Prof. Laura Salvadego (laura.salvadego@unimc.it) and Tutor Dr. Rachele Marconi (r.marconi4@unimc.it). Please contact the Tutor for further information.

Collegamento via Blackboard Collaborate
ACCESSO